

Before the No call law was enforced, we were receiving between 30 to 50 calls a week. We had no peace and could not answer the phone. We had to set up a ringing code for family. Our daughter who is living on disability for mental problems was coerced into buying $820.00 of magazine subscriptions. Please don't take the privacy law away.